

Gala Party Honors Teri

Teri Jeannette Wise's fifth birthday was the incentive for a gala party given last Thursday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Wise, 1615 Juniper.

A circus theme was used carried out in the yellow, green and red colors. The birthday cake was a carousel made of peppermint sticks.

The children played games, received party favors and were served refreshments by Mrs. Wise assisted by Mrs. Jean Mitchell, Mrs. Ray Elkins and Mrs. Tina Foote. It was also Mrs. Mitchell's birthday and there was a special cake for her.

Children helping Teri celebrate were her sister, Toni Lynn, Scott and Stacey Ellis, Ted and Mel Mitchell, Robert and Curt Wediman, Joy and Jan Fanning.

NEW GRANDPARENTS

Proud new grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Harley Waite, 317 W. 232nd Pl.

The Nilssons are former residents of Lomita.

Jobies Attend Annual Camp

Attending the annual summer camp session at Nob Oak Guest Camp in Crestline, were 69 Jobies and seven mothers of Torrance Bethel 50.

Swimming, fencing, shopping, bowling, and movies highlighted the Aug. 10-17 week for the girls.

Mothers who made the trip and did the cooking were Mmes. Leonard Babcock, Ed Thayne, W. O. Hoy, George Crabtree, John Wright, and C. N. Hirtle.

Helping with transportation of girls and luggage were Leonard Babcock, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Woodman, and Mr. and Mrs. Willys Blount.

SCOTT FAMILY ENJOY VACATION

Mrs. Helene Scott, 1719 Andreo, has returned to her duties with the Dept. of Employment after a delightful two weeks vacation. Her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Swinney and children, Bob and Mary Ann, of Bartlesville, Okla. arrived for five days here. The family accompanied by Mrs. Scott then went to Yosemite where they were joined by Mrs. Scott's son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scott and Sandra and Bobby of Oakland. The entire family, together for the first time in four years; went to Oakland for several days. Mrs. Scott returned to Torrance last week end and the Swinney family left for Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Good Feted on 50th Anniversary

More than 100 friends and relatives gathered for an open house Sunday feting the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Good.

The event was held at the home of the Goods' daughter and husband, Grace and Dale Reed, 2406 W. 181st St.

The honored couple, who live in Lakewood, cut a three-tiered beautifully decorated wedding cake for the many guests which included their other daughter, Doris Good Stahl. A son and his family, John and Wilma Good of Las Vegas were present to make it a complete family reunion—the first time they had all been together since their marriages.

Mr. and Mrs. Good were married in Curtis, Neb., Aug. 26, 1907 by the Rev. R. H. Carr, Methodist minister. They lived in Curtis until 1954.

Silver candelabra added an ornate touch to the serving table and baskets of yellow and gold chrysanthemums and yellow carnations decorated the living room for the party.

Preceding the open house, the Goods and their children and families attended church services at the Christ the King Lutheran Church.

The celebrants three grandchildren, Robert Dale, Richard John Reed, and David Ross Good were in the group.

Assn. Plans Year's Slate

The Harbor Assn. for Early Childhood Education has held a series of meetings and potluck dinners planning the 1957 and 1958 program. The theme for the year is "Expanding Community Relations."

The executive board met first during the summer in Laguna in July with Mrs. Lettie Belle Mangone as hostess with potluck luncheon.

Next in early August was a scholarship benefit luncheon with a tour through Helms Bakery.

Last was another executive board meeting held the latter part of August at Mrs. Gladys Wright's lovely home in Palos Verdes Estates with a potluck dinner.

Birthday Party Held

Gracie McCabe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin McCabe, 1620 Greenwood Ave., celebrated her 10th birthday last Saturday with a hot dog party in the backyard.

Guests invited for the party were Linda, Christine, and Michael Donish; Tommy and Jerry Wilkes, Sally and Edith Bischoff, Paul Salzburg, Linda Tollefsrud, Linda, Arlene, and David Yeskin; Mark Simons, Patty Brislin.

Teenager Sharon McCabe and Paula Bischoff arranged games for the youngsters.

Mrs. Clifford McCabe, cousin of the birthday girl, attended the party as well as Gracie's parents, and her two brothers, Jimmy and Timmy.

A SYMBOL OF LOYALTY . . . A fuchsia tree, with a blossom supplied by each officer, pledging her support for the coming year, is held by Mrs. Margaret Clark, new president of the North Torrance Fuchsia Society, who was installed last week in an impressive "garden ceremony." At the left is Miss Janice Smith, who was chosen as the society's "Princess Janice." She was presented with a trophy in appreciation for her work for the group.
